

TAPESTRY TALES

How will you tell your life story? In Mice of the Round Table #1: A Tail of Camelot, the tapestry hall displays elegantly stitched tapestries depicting Camelot's history. Now it's your turn: Choose three important events from your life and draw a picture of each in the blank tapestries below. Write a few sentences beneath each tapestry to tell the story behind the picture; use details and descriptive words. Be prepared to present your stories to your peers, explaining how the events in your personal history have made you who you are today.

CCS-W. 3.3 - 6.3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear sequence. CCS-SL. 3.4 - 4.4 Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace. Reviewed and approved by Mary VandeWater, Professor Emerita of Reading and Basic Education, Nassau Community College, Garden City, NY.