

Dog Days Forever

Discussion Questions

1. Caro rescues and fosters dogs but never actually adopts any of them, until she finds Frankie. Have you ever fostered a pet? Did you end up keeping it? Or have you ever adopted a rescue pet? If you don't have a pet, would you ever get one? If so, what type?
2. Caro believes Frankie is a sign from her late mother. Do you believe in signs? Do you believe that loved ones watch over you after they pass?
3. Max has stayed away from Cruickshank for years, rarely returning to his grandparents' house because it reminds him of Caro and his broken heart. Have you ever avoided a person or place because the memories were too difficult to face?
4. Do you think Caro made the right choice to end things with Max when they were younger? Do you think they would have lasted if they'd worked through their issues all those years ago? What are your feelings on second-chance love stories? Have you ever rekindled a relationship after years apart?
5. The book is set in a fictional town in North Carolina, full of locals who all know one another, family owned businesses, and picturesque landscapes. Did the description of Cruickshank make you want to visit somewhere similar? Would you ever live in such a place? Do you prefer a small, cozy town like Cruickshank or a big, bustling city like New York?
6. Why do you think Caro works so many odd jobs? If you could pick any job of Caro's, which would you choose and why?
7. The book hints at a secret, volatile history between Lucy and Theo—did you pick up on that? Well, you are in luck. Lucy's story is coming soon! It will contain more puppies, delicious baked goods, and lots of cozy canine cuddles around the Christmas tree. But before you read it, do you have any theories on what might have happened between her and Theo? Why do you think they can't stand each other?
